UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 1 DISTRICT OF NEVADA 2 JULIE A. CLEMONS; individually, 3 4 Plaintiff, Case No. 2:19-cv-0248-RFB-BNW 5 VS. 6 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 7 Defendant. 8 9 PRETRIAL ORDER 10 After pretrial proceedings in this case, 11 IT IS SO ORDERED: 12 13 I. 14 This is a tort action brought under the Federal Tort Claims Act (FTCA), wherein 15 Plaintiff Julie Clemons alleges she sustained personal injuries arising out of a motor vehicle 16 accident occurring on December 11, 2015. 17 18 II. 19 The Court's subject matter jurisdiction arises under the FTCA, codified at 28 U.S.C. § 20 1346 et. seq. Because this is an FTCA case, the Court will be acting as the trier-of-fact. There 21 will be no jury trial in this case. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2). 22 III. 23 24 The following facts are admitted by the parties and require no proof: 25 Plaintiff, Defendant's employee Marcus G. Brandt, and a third driver, Juan 1. 26 Acosta, were involved in a motor vehicle accident on or about December 11, 2015. 27 2. At the time of the accident, Mr. Brandt was acting in the course and scope of his 28

| 2 | IV. | | | |
| 3 | The following facts, though not admitted, will not be contested at trial by evidence to the | | | |
| 4 | contrary: None. | | | |
| 5 | v. | | | |
| 6 | | | | |
| 7 | The following are the issues of fact to be tried and determined at trial from Plaintiff's | | | |
| 8 | perspective: | | | |
| 9 | 1. Whether Defendant and its employee owed Plaintiff a duty of care. | | | |
| 10 | 2. Whether Defendant and its employee breached that duty of care. | | | |
| 11 | 3. Whether Defendant's breach of the duty of care was the actual and proximate cause | | | |
| 13 | of Plaintiff's damages. | | | |
| 14 | 4. The amount of damages sustained by Plaintiff for which she is entitled to | | | |
| 15 | compensation. | | | |
| 16 | The following are the issues of fact to be tried and determined at trial from Defendant's | | | |
| 17 | perspective: | | | |
| 18 | | | | |
| 19 | 1. The duty of care owed and to whom. | | | |
| 20 | 2. The actions or inactions taken to constitute a breach of duty of care. | | | |
| 21 | 3. The mechanism of the cause of the accident. | | | |
| 22 23 | 4. Whether, and to what extent, Plaintiff suffered injury and/or sustained damages | | | |
| 24 | from the accident. | | | |
| 25 | 5. The extent and quality of Plaintiff's pre-existing medical conditions. | | | |
| 26 | 6. Whether Plaintiff's alleged damages, if any, are attributable to medical | | | |
| 27 28 | conditions that pre-existed the accident. | | | |

- 7. Whether Plaintiff contributed to her own alleged damages.
- 8. Whether, and to what extent, Plaintiff incurred damages as a proximate cause of the negligence of others.
- 9. The type and extent of damages claimed for (1) past medical expenses; (2) future medical expenses; (3) pain and suffering; and (4) lost wages and future earnings.
- 10. Whether Plaintiff's claim for medical damages were reasonably and necessarily incurred and caused by the accident.
 - 11. Plaintiff's efforts to mitigate her alleged damages.

VI.

The following are the issues of law to be tried and determined at trial:

- 1. Duty of Care. Generally, everyone has a duty to exercise reasonable care when their conduct creates a risk of physical harm to others. Nev. J.I. 4.3. Negligence is the failure to exercise that degree of care which an ordinarily careful and prudent person would exercise under the same or similar circumstances. Id. Ordinary care is that care which persons of ordinary prudence exercise in the management of their own affairs in order to avoid injury to themselves or to others. Id. The issues as to duty are:
 - a. Whether the parties owed a duty of care.
- 2. Proximate Cause. A proximate cause of injury, damage, loss, or harm is a cause which, in natural and continuous sequence, produces the injury, damage, loss, or harm, and without which the injury, damage, loss, or harm, would not have occurred. Nev. J.I. 4.4. The particular issues as to causation are:
 - a. Whether a breach in the duty of care proximately caused the accident.

- 3. Comparative Negligence. A plaintiff may not recover damages if her comparative negligence has contributed more to her injury than the negligence of the defendant. Nev. J.I. 4.8. However, if the plaintiff is negligent, the plaintiff may still recover a reduced sum, so long as her comparative negligence was not greater than the negligence of the defendant. Id. Plaintiff does not believe there are any facts to support a finding of comparative negligence in this case. However, from Defendant's perspective, the particular issues as to comparative fault are as follows:
 - a. Whether Plaintiff was negligent (and if so, by what percentage).
 - b. Whether Plaintiff's negligence was a substantial factor in causing her own harm.
 - c. Does Plaintiff's percentage of negligence exceed the negligence of Brandt, if any, barring recovery pursuant to NRS 41.141.(1).
 - d. The percentage of negligence attributable to the Plaintiff shall reduce the amount of such recovery by the proportionate amount of such negligence and the reduction will be made by the Court.

4. Negligence of non-parties.

- a. Whether non-party Acosta was negligent (and if so, by what percentage) in causing the accident.
- 5. Damages. In determining losses, if any, suffered by the Plaintiff as a proximate (legal) cause of the accident, the Court must take into consideration the nature, extent and duration from the evidence and decide upon a sum to reasonably and fairly compensate: (a) reasonable and necessary medical expenses incurred in the past; (b) reasonable and necessary medical expenses reasonably certain to incur in the future as a result of the accident; (c) lost earnings that were incurred and future earnings that are reasonably certain to have been lost in the future; (d) pain and suffering; (e) loss of household services. See Nev. J.I. 5.1. Additional issues for the Court's determination are:

- whether Plaintiff's injuries, if any, were caused by pre-existing medical conditions that existed prior to the accident. [A person who has a condition or disability at the time of the injury is not entitled to recover damages therefor. See Nev. J.I. 5.3. But, she may be entitled to recover damages for any aggravation of such pre-existing condition or disability resulting from the injury. Id. This is true even if the person's condition or disability made her more susceptible to the possibility of ill effects than a normally healthy person would have been, and even if a normally healthy person probably would not have suffered any substantial injury. Id.]
- b. Whether Plaintiff mitigated her alleged damages.
